PALESTINE, TEXAS, Aug. 10, 1869.

"THEY WANT AN EMPIRE. "On the fall of Richmond, Jefferson Davis started the Confederate treasury westward, deluding himself with the dream of a trans-Mississippi empire.

"I asked his Postmaster General, Mr. Reagan, how it was that the President of their Confederacy should be caught with his baggage wagons in the awkward plight of being under his wife's cloak. He informed me that Davis had left his trains and struck for the seaboard, when after a day's ride, hearing that the Confederate force had disbanded, and would probably Fair View, Negro Mountain Grand endanger the safety of his family, he re-

I suspect that Davis feared more for the safety of his Confederate treasury, which he hoped to get safely into Texas, where, had Magrader been able to keep his army together, a nucleus for the material of war would have enabled him to continue the

The speech containing these passages was extensively circulated through Texas last spring, and was sent to myself and others here. I then intended to call attention to the errors in the above paragraphs, but in my hurry of business, neglected to do so. A new batch of these speeches is now being circulated through the State, and I am favored with a second crop.

On the first paragraph of the above, I have only to say that on the fall of Richmond President Davis did not start "deluding himself with the dream of a trans-Mississippi empire.' Mr. Davis took out his pocket-book and counted. I think, about two hundred and seventy dollars in Confederate treasury notes, then almost entirely worthless, and said. laughingly, that was his fortune in money. He then added, that it was a source of gratification rather than of regret that himself and nearly all the members of his Cabinet had sacrificed their private fortunes in the struggle for the liberty of the people. I will also add, that when it was determined, after the surrender of General Johnston, to transfer the field of military operations to the west of the Mississippi, one of his Cabinet told Mr. Davis that he had money enough to take them both across that river.

These facts are given to show the injustice which has been done to one whose wholly devoted to the cause, then so dear and responsibilities, took no thought of his private fortune or of his personal

SPIRITS TURPENFINE-In the market for this article there was less business during the calier part of the week, and the price declined to 38 cents for country packages. For a few days past there has been a steady demand for foreign shipment, and all the sales effected have been at above figure. The receipts from all sources are quite small; and in consequence the stock offering is very light, only a few parcels remaining in receivers' hands. We quote sales as follows: Friday 240 casks at 38 @89* cents per gallon.

46 46 Monday ... 525 Tuesday...102 " " 33 @381* " Do800 " on private terms. N. Y. packages.

Rosin.-We have nothing new to report in the market for either grade during the week just pers, especially for the finer qualities, and former quotations are fully sustained. At the close the lower grades, owing mainly to the diffimake silk from the fibre of the mulberry culty experienced in obtaining ship room. The holding at quotations given below. Sales as fol-

are quite small, and the stock in dealers' hands

GRAIN - The arrivals of Conn have been meagre for some two weeks past, and in consequence the is a moderate demand existing, and the market rules firmer at a shade advance in price. No late cargo sales, and we are therefore unable to give a correct quotation. From store we quote former receipts as selling at $1 20 for inferior, and prime The contract for building the Blue Ridge at $1 30@$1 35 @ bushel-latter figure including bags. Oats Are in small stock, and retail stock of Cow on market. Still by the quantity at $1 % bushel. White are nominal at $1 50@$1 60. and no stock. ____Bick_The supply of clean is small, but sufficient to meet the retail demand. We quote Carolina at 91@10 cents Will.

HAY .- Northern continues to be in very good stock, and is in moderate request. About 265 bales received, and sold from wharf at 75, 85@ 871 cents # lb., according to quality. We also note the receipt by a dealer of 216 bales Eastern, which has gone into store. LIME. - No receipts, and market bare.

POTATOES .- Irish are in moderate supply, and sell from store at $2 50 @ bbl. Poultry-Is being brought in rather more freely, and is in | moderate request. Live chick-cents each. PROVISIONS-In the Bacon market we have no especial change to report since the close of our last review. North Carolina cured is very scarce and wanted, and a prime article finds quick sale at high figures. The receipts for the week consist of only a few small lots, which have been taken at 21@22 cents for hog round, and 23@24 cents per lb. for hams. Western is in fair stock. and the market rules firm, with a moderate business doing. We quote from store at 171@18 cents for shoulders, and 20@21 cents 3 lb. for sides .-LARD-Northern is in moderate stock, and the demand is pretty much in the retail way. Sells from store at 171 to 22 cents 7 th, by the package. as in quality .- PORK-The stock of Northern on market is quite small, but sufficient to meet the demand. We refer to our table for SALT-The market is very well supplied at present, and only a light demand exists. From store we quote as selling in the small way at $2, $ sack. A cargo of 4,000 sacks was received direct from Liverpool a few days since, but not yet sold. Suingles-The market rules rather dull, with a limited enquiry for shipping purposes. We quote sales of Common at $2 50@$3 25 W M. TIMBER-Continues to arrive sparingly, owing to the low stage of the river, and there is at present a moderate enquiry for mill purposes.

Small sales have been effected at figures given in Wood-Is slow of sale, and we quote by the boat load at $2 25@$2 50 for pine and ash, and $3 70 cord for oak. FREIGHTS-To coastwise ports are unchanged n price. Vessels are coming into port slowly. and there is a fair enquiry for freight room. We refer to table for last rates paid.
